

Celebrating 20 Years of protecting Lives and Livelihoods

Established as Guardian Fire & Security by Brendan Stamp and his sister Jackie Carthy

2004

Facebook launched

Brother James Stamp joins the family business

Incorporated as a Limited Company

2006

Dublin Port Tunnel opened for heave goods vehicles only.

GFS takes its first steps to trading online with the launch of fireproductsdirect.ie

GFS achieves EcoMerit Certification

GFS launches Portable Fire Extinguisher Division

2012

Katie Taylor wins boxing gold for Ireland at the London Olympics To the state of th

GFS is the first company in Ireland to successfully achieve third party accreditation to Irish Standard 3218:2009 (Specification for Fire Detection & Alarm Systems for buildings)

2010

Instagram launched

GFS navigates the recession and continues to grow steadily with the appointment of 2 more team members

2009

Ireland win Rugby Grand Slam GFS opens Support Office at Woodbine Business Park, New Ross

Margaret Goldsmith joins the business

2008

Barack Obama becomes the first African-American to be elected President of the United States dictionary

added to the 2013

GFS moves to a larger premises at Bosheen Road, New Ross

GFS continues it's digital journey with the move to Ez Management

Michael D Higgins became the first Irish president to pay a state visit to the UK GFS launches its Fire Safety Training Division

2015

Met Eireann and UK Met Office start naming storms. The first was Abigail. GFS highly commended in the Corporate Social Responsibility Award, Wexford Business Awards

2016

First electrically powered plug-in car goes on sale in Ireland

GFS delivers its first

electric company car

GFS changes its name to Guardian Fire & "Safety" and confirms its values as Care, Trust & Professionalism.

2017

Grenfell Fire claims 72 lives in the UK

GFS wins Fire Safety Company of the Year in the Southeast Radio Awards

GFS prepares for Brexit

2018

Pope Francis visited ireland

GFS celebrates 20 Years in Business GFS delivers it first electric service vehicle

2024

2

Chat GPT takes the world by storm after launching its Artificial Intelligence service to paid subscribers GFS opens a satellite office at John F. Kennedy Industrial Estate, Dublin 12.

2021

40th Anniversary of Stardust Fire in which 48 people lost their lives GFS is classed as an "essential" business and remains operational during the Covid-19 pandemic

2020

The first official cancellation of the Leaving Certificate, due to the COVID-19 pandemic.